

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Once again, this is a deliberate attempt by the Republican Party to tear and scandalize Sen. John Kerry. The fact that they continue to pull and do unfair antics and negative press, which a lot of times is based on false information is disingenuous and wrong.

You can make a big issue over what should and should not be permitted for viewing regarding the costume failure of Janet Jackson during the Super Bowl half-time show, but allow a company, who pays no money to utilize the airways, to break federal laws to air a program based on lies.

It is imperative that you reconsider allowing this to happen. We need to be able to have a fair election this year, and avoid the issues that we had to encounter in 2000.
